Moalawi v. City of New York, et al.
24-cv-05795

Hon. John G. Koeltl
United States District Court
500 Pearl Street
New York, NY 10007

Dear Judge:

I am a Pro Se plaintiff for the aforesaid case. I write to ask this court to extend the time I have to serve individual defendants who are a part of this case a summons and complaint. I was not issued summonses for two individual defendants until August 21, 2024. These summonses are not returnable until November 19, 2024.

This case involves civil rights violations perpetrated by New York City Police Detectives who are named as defendants. I write to ask for an extension to until January 19, 2025 to serve these individuals with a summons and complaint. I also write to ask this court for an order directing the defendant City of New York to provide the last known addresses of the defendants who have not been served. My understanding is that these defendants are retired from the New York City Police Department but that the city has their last known addresses for the purpose of servicing their pensions.

Please grant this request so that the service of process for all defendants is completed.

Sincerely,

Ali Moalawi
Pro Se
